SPIRITUAL ADVISOR:

Matthew 28:18-20 — “Jesus said, “... go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father & of the Son & of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.” NIV

As we get older, we lose more and more loved ones. And sometimes we have to ask ourselves...’did we do all we could to share Jesus with that person’? At your confirmation, you vowed that you would do your part to fulfill the Great Commission. For too many of us, we fall into a pattern that leads us to become fat-and-happy with no tangible fruit.

For some of us, the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak. The Lord understands this and sometimes God helps us by nudging...or eventually (sometimes) by pushing us to new places. And know that it is not just about those you minister to, but it also about you. In our most recent COR, Bishop Andrew Cozzens taught that "Our mission is made out of our Identity, which is formed by our relationships". And if God is calling you to a new ‘mission’, then you should expect Him to transform you in preparation for aspects of that new calling. And to create this new identity, the old you must be reformed through the new relationships God places you in the midst of. Even if it is simply signing up for a new (and possibly challenging) ministry in your parish. You’ll be working alongside (and serving) new people, which will change who you are.

Keeping in focus the mission at hand. Which is to do your part in sharing a saving knowledge of their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ to those He sends you to. Don’t avoid a new calling to serve. God has a proven track record of involving other means or other people to ‘get you’ harmonized (ReHarmonized) with His Perfect will. And we know from Matthew 18:14 what that is...”your Father in heaven is not willing that any...should perish.“

FAITHFUL NAVIGATOR:

Worthy Sir Knights:

We are fast approaching the end of our Columbian Year. I ask that you keep the following Brothers in your prayers: Greg De Cristofaro, Steve Mormann, Jim Callas. This will be the last meeting for the Columbian Year before we head into the summer break. I have not scheduled our Installation of Officers yet, but that will probably be in August if I had to guess. Will keep you posted on that date.

On another note, you know how much I value the Honor Guard callouts and presentations with a full display of our KofC swords. I will enlighten and entertain you with my final chapter called "The Rusty Sword"

The Rusty Sword – Chapter 6: August 2025 - My wife Diane and I were close to celebrating our 25th wedding anniversary. For your 25th anniversary the gift of choice is silver. I had selected a very nice tea pot with accompanying teacups that were silver pewter. She loved it. My wife asked me for some suggestions for a possible gift for me. I thought long and hard for ideas. Then it came to me. But of course, it's so obvious. I told her to purchase a brand new Knights of Columbus 4th degree sword for me. It arrived a few days before our anniversary. I took it out of the box and examined it carefully, with its bright shiny chrome scabbard and sword with golden inscriptions of the Knights of Columbus. The perfect gift. Could not ask for anything more. End of story.

End Chapter 6

Fraternally,

District Deputy :

My Brothers,

Congratulations on your many achievements this past Columbian Year! You scheduled and held events, provided funds for charity and scholarships, and systematically supported your Pastor, parish, and its ministries. Let us always remember the foundation of our faith, which is to live and share the Gospels of Our Lord Jesus Christ while putting his teachings into action! With him we can accomplish great things!

There are so many things to talk about this final month of the Columbian Year. Where has the time gone? June is the month for electing new council officers and I am proud of the leadership that is being proposed for the councils in District 2. That being said, the 2025-2026 Columbian Year isn't over yet. In the final weeks of the year please continue to strive to grow our Order and achieve Star Council. Many of you are close, if not qualified already. The more active Catholic men we have in our churches and councils the more we can do, the more we can serve, and the more we will be a force for good in the world. My congratulations to our new Brother Knights who have joined to date. But don't stop now. Let's make the month of June a powerful finish! Potential members can continue to join for free online by entering the code "BlessedMcGivney" in the online application form found at www.kofc.org/joinus.

A featured program for the month of June is the Building the Domestic Church Kiosk, which helps strengthen the faith of our members and parish families by providing exceptional religious education materials to all Catholics. The kiosk and related publications are available for a minimal cost of $150 through the Supreme Council Supply Department. For further information and resources regarding this program click here, or contact the Supreme Council Supply Department at 1-833-591-7770.

As we end the year, please be sure that all required forms and reports have been submitted to the Supreme Council, including the Form SP-7 Columbian Award Application. Also make certain that all positions that are required to do so have completed Praesidium Academy's online Safe Environment training by clicking here (many have had their certification expire near the end of the Columbian Year -- it must be renewed every two years).

As we end the year, let us be ever mindful of The Knights of Columbus' principles of Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism. They serve as the basis of the Order's personal CORE values expected of every member which are:

Integrity: Firm adherence to ethics, honesty, and a moral code.

Professionalism: Promoting the highest standards in all we do.

Excellence: Leading by example and constantly striving to be the best.

Respect: Treating each other with the highest regard.

My Brothers, my thoughts are with you as we conclude one year and embark on another. As always, thank you for your charity and service!

May God bless,
Dave Abbott

Knights of Columbus Insurance Field Agent:

Knights of Columbus Insurance

Brother Knights,

As Knights we all know the story about the untimely death of Blessed Fr. McGivney's father nearly derailed his plans to become a priest. As the curate of St. Mary's, he encountered families in similar situations who had lost fathers so it's little wonder why he made financial security for families such a priority. It's interesting to read about Blessed Fr. Michael McGivney's perspective in Faith and Fraternalism by Christopher J. Kauffman: "Though he [Fr. McGivney] seems to have been well aware of the value of ceremonials as the binding force for fraternal unity, he spent his energy in promoting the insurance feature."

In my position I feel a deep kinship with Blessed Fr. McGivney, and I see myself as continuing to fulfill his vision in helping to protect Catholic families. We have the financial needs analysis tools, cutting edge software and all the financial security products that will help with this financial security planning for you and your family. Sadly, I have met with widows and families in the past who were shocked and surprised to learn that they had not been provided the financial security they needed or, in a few cases, no security at all. The impact on the surviving families is devastating and it saddens me as a representative of Blessed Fr. McGivney that I was unable to help a family in time of need. I hear all the excuses: “I’m young and healthy”, “my family has plenty of assets to support them when I die”, “My family is fine and they will be okay”. Unfortunately, in each of these sad situations, the families were not fine and they aren’t going to be okay. Young and healthy people do die unexpectedly. Family assets that seemed so secure can be devastated by medical bills, bad investments or many other unforeseen things.

Please make it a point to meet with me so we can review your family’s financial security for their sake, your peace of mind, and to fulfill Blessed Fr. McGivney’s vision of financial protection for Catholic men and their families. I look forward to discussing these benefits that our founder bestowed upon us with all of you and your families.

God Bless,
